

Schiereiland

The Oldambt is a young sea clay area in Northeast Groningen, and there are huge agriculture and big farms around the area. The area is known as 'The Grain Republic'. Around the whole area there are road and beautiful villages to visit. And there are a man-made beaches, which are great to visit when you are on the bike. So, there are parts of Schiereiland you could visit like the Oldambt Region, and in the Northwestern part you could visit the Fivelingo.

Oudeschans

Oudeschans is a small village with a population of 150 people. Oudeschans is in the municipality of Westerwolde in the province of Groningen. There are a lot of old buildings with national monuments and parks, also there is a 17th-century garrison church, and the Vestingmuseum Oudeschans. Oudeschans is definitely a place worth to visit.

Nieuweschans

Nieuweschans is a small village with a population of 1550 people. It's located in the North-Eastern Netherlands, and it's on the border of Germany. So, if you are cycling then this is a place worth to visit. In 2009, the name of the village has changed to Bad Nieuweschans, because they want to attract more tourist. It's a tourist destination, so on the weekends or on the holiday this is a good place to visit.

After the 1990, Nieuweschans became a part of the municipality of Reiderland. In April 2009, the municipality of Reiderland changed the name from Nieuweschans to Bad Nieuweschans, to promote the town as a spa.

CYCLE ROUTE GRONINGEN

THE BEST 3 CYCLE ROUTES IN GRONINGEN!